November is for the ...

Birds (and flowers too)!

Talking Turkey by Pat Worley

November has arrived at SJCC

The fall color had passed and we're now all hunkering down for the cold winter, warmed by the thought of family, friends and the upcoming holidays.

Planning on photographing the winter landscapes, nature and wildlife? Here's a tip to help you survive the weather: As photographers, we tend to spend a lot of time standing in one spot. And we quickly discover that doing so doesn't generate a lot of body heat. Overdressing for winter weather will help you stay warm and comfortable. Also, dressing in layers helps you adjust what you are wearing as conditions change. Instead of one heavy winter coat, consider a sweater, fleece and lighter jacket; giving you the option of removing and adding layers as the temperature warms or cools.

As always, we have a jam-packed season of meetings and activities. It's all on our website, but here's what's coming up in November.

Coming up this Month

Presentation Program: Thursday, November 14, 7pm

Tips For Better Wildlife Photography by Buddy Eleazer

Buddy Eleazer is an international award-winning wildlife and landscape photographer with 35 years of experience. He has traveled to 22 countries on four continents; learning to appreciate and respect multiple cultures. His images have been featured by Popular Photography, National Geographic and the prestigious Epson Panorama Awards.

Competition Night: Tuesday, November, 19pm

Judge: Buddy Eleazer

- Digital: Open
- Color Prints: Petals and Feathers – Birds, flowers or both. May be depicted as complete subjects or in macro detail.

Birds, flowers or birds with or on flowers are welcome. It's all good, as long as it's on topic.

Workshop: This Saturday, November 9, 10am - noon at Medford Leas in the Holly Room (to the left of the theater we meet in).

Field Trip: Saturday, Nov 23, 1pm - 5pm
Batsto Village in Wharton State Forest

I'll be leading this field trip to one of the Pine Barrens' historic icons, Batsto Village. We'll wander around the grounds, photograph the buildings, landscapes, and beautiful lake. I'll even show you a few "secret" spots for great photography. We'll start in the afternoon and end our trip by photographing the sunset by beautiful Batsto Lake. REGISTER NOW

Where are the rest of the field trips? You may have noticed that Batsto is the last field trip listed on the website. Rather than rush through fleshing out the calendar, we're taking the time to reconsider our approach to field trips in order to offer a variety of experiences for members of varied interests and skill levels. We're forming a committee to come up with the best trips guided by members who know the locations. Stay tuned.

Got too much Halloween Candy?

If you, your kids, or grandkids are drowning in leftover Halloween candy, consider bringing it to the SJCC meetings and share your surplus with friends and fellow photographers.

Woolman Gallery Exhibition

If your photographs are in the this exhibit, please bring 18x12 unmounted prints to the Thursday November 14th meeting so we can get the exhibit installed as soon as possible. Thanks!

Medford Leas SJCC Members Gallery Exhibition

We have one more intake scheduled on Friday, November 8 from 5-7pm. If you are interested in providing framed prints for the show and haven't contacted us yet, please email info@sjcameraclub.org with your name, title of the photo and price.
