Places Everyone!

Congratulations to everyone who has moved up to a new division and welcome to the new members who joined us during our summer hiatus. Our database has been updated to reflect all the changes, but if you have not yet done so – especially if you plan to enter our September competitions – it wouldn't hurt to log in to the SJCC website asap and ensure you are assigned to the correct group. (New members: Click the link to upload your images and follow the submit pictures path, entering information as prompted. You'll find your group assignment next to your name on the resulting submission page.)

Upcoming SJCC Exhibits

As a thank you to Medford Leas for generously allowing us the use of their auditorium and meeting rooms, we provide images to help decorate the Woolman skilled nursing facility on campus. We have a gallery of 16 frames that we fill seasonally with prints loaned by our membership. We are currently calling for images with a pleasant fall or winter theme. If you have photos you'd like to submit for consideration please email up to 4 of them to SJCCExhibitions@gmail.com (jpg format, 1400 px wide) by October 1. Please include Woolman Fall Exhibition in the subject line of your email. Photos must be horizontal in orientation and capable of being printed at 18" x 12". Barbara Doreste will gather and share all the images with the selection committee and notify the makers of their choices asap after the entry deadline. Selected unmounted prints will be collected at our October meeting and installed in the shortly afterward.

Our annual Medford Leas Exhibition will be hung outside the auditorium throughout November. All active members are invited to enjoy this opportunity to display their framed prints in this exhibit. Exact dates and further details to come, but keep this on your radar if you're interested.

Thank you for helping us show our gratitude and make a difference in the daily lives of the residents, visitors and staff who look forward to enjoying our work each season.

Looking forward to seeing you all soon!

Best regards,
Sara Ascalon, President
